See's Christmas Candy sales are off to a great start, with $1,890 in sales on the Sunday before Thanksgiving kickoff. Sales this year til Tuesday are $8,672, $755 ahead of last year. Our goal is $7,000 net profit this year. The trailer has been loaned to the club by Dorn's Rv and Marine of Redmond. Sisters Kiwanian's have generously volunteered to help with the sales. If you have lost your schedule you may find it on the Sisters Kiwanis website.

Sisters Kiwanis Website

Sisters Kiwanis website was launched this month at <http://www.sisterskiwanis.org>. Look for the current issue of the Siskawan and other interesting new about the club.

The mission of Sisters Kiwanis is "Service to the community with an emphasis on youth."

SMART Reading Program Helps Kids

SMART is a reading program started about 14 years ago by former Governor Neil Goldschmidt. It stands for "Start Making Aa Readers Today". The program started with 4 pilot schools, one of which was Sisters Elementary.

A person agrees to spend 1/2 to 1 hour per week, one-on-one with an individual student, kindergarten thru third grade. The student is either read to and listens or he or she reads and is listened to. Many of the students in the program don't get this one-on-one attention at home so they look forward to meeting with their "SMART reader".

It's a very rewarding program both for the student and for the SMART reader. Anyone who has even 1/2 hour a week is encouraged to take on a student reader on either Tuesday or Thursday here in Sisters. They should contact the "SMART Coordinator" at Sisters Elementary or either of these two days

"YOU ARE NEEDED".

Susan Schneider of the Oregon Community Foundation gave a presentation on the benefits of investing the club's endowment in their investment vehicles. By a voice vote earlier this month the club accepted her recommendations.

Roger Gabrielson gave an interesting talk about the issues confronting our country in the war on Terrorism.

Golf Tournament

Jeff McDonald and the Golf Tournament committee are already hard at work planning for the Golf tournament May 19th. They are considering raising fees for the tournament from $100.00 to $125.00. A $25.00 discount may be applied for registrations paid by April 15th.
