Special Issue September 23, 2008
by Vern Renner

The club ended its 2007-2008 Kiwanis year with the Installation Social held at the home of the Marlow's. The event was presented in memory of Cliff Clements. President Tay Robertson led off the program with the introduction of guests. He expressed his appreciation to the members for their support during his term of office. New member and former Lt. Governor Earl Schroder did the honors of inducting the new officers for the 2008-2009 year.

President Tay made the presentations of the club's recognition to members for their outstanding service to the club and the community during the year.

PRESIDENT'S AWARD was presented to Doug Stevens for his being the editor of the newsletter, Web Master and Cub Scout Committee Chairman and Kiwanis Scout Unit Rep. ROOKIE OF THE YEAR was presented to Lance Trowbridge for his involvement in most every program during his short time as a new member.

PROJECT OF THE YEAR was awarded to Suzy Ramsey for her work on the development of the Cliff Clements Park.

SPIRIT AWARD was presented to Grant Cyrus for his successful fund raising projects.

SPARKPLUG AWARD was awarded to Jeff McDonald for his work on fund raising and scholarship leadership.

KIWANIAN OF THE YEAR was presented to Tom Worcester for his successful leadership of the membership committee which brought in 12 new members during the year.

Former Lt. Governor Earl Schroeder wearing his red blazer covered with honors inducted the new officers for the coming year. He began by calling Barbara Johnson and her husband Bob to the podium. The following officers were inducted:

President Barbara Johnson
Secretary Linda Bafford

President Elect Grant Cyrus
Treasurer Jack McGilvary

The Board of Directors are:

Mike Robillard	Ron Mohler
Vern Renner	Gary Frazee
Jeannie Nolander	Neil Koch
Jeff McDonald	Tay Robertson, Past President

The pot luck dinner was outstanding along with the libations.

A special "thank you" to the social committee Jean O'Hara, Namoi Rowe, Leart McGilvary. Lance Trowbridge, Julia Hammond and Sheryl McLaughlin. "Well done".

The horse shoe competition was impressive or at least a few were impressive. I would award Fay for the best of style. Her swing was perfection and a beauty to behold. Tom looked like he has thrown a shoe or two before.

The Silent Auction was very successful. There were many items to bid on so it was a "happy event" that brought in funds to pay for our projects. The combined auction and the competitions showed a profit of over $2,600.

We all owe the Marlow's a special "thank you" for hosting the installation social again this year!

Susan Windell presented the "Every Day Hero Award" to President Tay Robertson. He is the first member to serve two terms as the club's President. His leadership during his terms of office were outstanding.

We are still looking for a committee for the Siskiwan newsletter, an editor, reporters and photographers are needed. Chairpersons in charge of events need to provide written information to the persons who are responsible for news releases in the local newspaper, the newsletter and the web page. Please give Vern the information so we can provide the members with information and public news releases to the community.
